

OUR TOWN

By J. B. W.

It is not yet possible to determine the ultimate results of Democratic disaster at the polls on November 6. To analyze the election results will now engage the attention of the experts and outstanding observers. That the defeat of the Democratic party, following the disasters of 1920 and 1924, in worse proportion, is indicative of a permanent decline of our national appeal, seems now apparent, although in time the contentions of the 1928 campaign, however unnecessary and absurd, may run their course and heal the party's wounds.

To Democrats who have an abiding affection for fundamentals, the election of November 6 is without parallel in the reversal of traditions. The voter who cast his ballot for reasons not to be considered vital to the welfare of the country, can find great satisfaction. To him it is the greatest triumph of his career as a participant at the ballot box. If prohibition was an issue the country is dry. If religion was an issue the country is opposed to a Catholic holding office. If corruption was an issue then the people have forgotten the record of the Republican party. If farm relief was an issue then the farmers do not care for relief. They must pin their hopes to hopeless tariff walls, a non-workable plan for a major part of the farm area.

It is not pleasing to assess the results of the election and to base the outcome on the issues outlined here, but there seems to be no escape from the conclusion that there was a great diversion of the electorate on these issues. Prohibition was the guise of a deep and often times not expressed feeling of religious difference. In many sections the prohibition question was a sincere and honest objection. Of that there can be no doubt. Notwithstanding the statement of Governor Smith and his pledge to enforce the Volstead Act, the country has refused to believe that a wet can possibly live up to the oath. The claim of pre-election speakers for the Republicans that the Catholic vote in this country was lined up solidly for Governor Smith, seems to have been proven to be false. The comparatively few states carried by Governor Smith where Catholic population is preponderant, will answer that. Catholics who are Republicans remain with that party.

There are some reasons for the Democratic disaster that seem fundamental and reasonable in the light of dispassionate consideration of the political situation. The party has not yet captured the attention of the commercial ear. Notwithstanding the desertion of the traditional tariff policy of the party followed by the statement of Governor Smith, the industrial north and east and the rapidly ascending west and mid-west, refused to believe any such thing. Certainly in this age of rapid industrial advances, no party without effective commercial appeal can hope to succeed with any measure of permanence at the polls. The Republicans abandoned the South cotton states on the farm question and turned attention to the mid west where the tariff appeal for farm aid took, though with some misgiving. Imports of grain permits tariff operation but not so with exports of cotton and many other products.

America is dry and this election is a significant protest against tampering with dry legislation. That will be encouraging to all honest prohibitionists. The great task that confronts the Hoover administration on this question will be to secure enforcement. Conditions seem to indicate this will be difficult, for there has grown up in this country a powerful illicit liquor interest and in every instance these machines, such as Chicago, and Philadelphia, opposed Governor Smith whom they credited with intentions to ruin their business by permitting state sale of spiritous beverages. At least it will be interesting to watch the progress of the "noble experiment" and to wait the development of pre-election interest of the Republicans in the farmers.

Looking at the electoral college, the election proves Governor Smith has been defeated as decisively as any man who ever ran on the Democratic ticket. Looking at the popular vote, only one has ever polled a larger and that is Herbert Hoover in the present election. Here are some figures that will be of interest. In 1926 Woodrow Wilson received only nine million popular votes. In 1920 James M. Cox received only nine million popular votes while Harding received over sixteen million. In 1924 John W. Davis received a little more than 8 million popular votes while Coolidge received nearly sixteen million votes. While the 1928 election is not complete the unprecedented registration will show a record vote. It now appears correct that Governor Smith will receive in the neighborhood of 18 million popular votes while the Hoover popular vote will run about 23 million.

At this writing Texas has apparently delivered her electoral vote to Hoover. But five states now are assured Democratic. They are South

FOUR BOXES YET TO BE COUNTED AS DEMOCRATIC CAUSE TRIUMPHS AT POLLS

With the precincts of Ad Hall, Kolb, San Gabriel and Sandy Ridge yet to be counted, the majority for Governor Smith in Milam County is 1537.

This report is published at the time of going to press on Thursday. The remaining precincts will increase the total of Governor Smith in Milam County.

The vote stands: Smith 2793. Hoover 1256.

The total vote cast is a disappointment to the Democrats, as much better interest was expected to be shown. If a full strength had been polled the results would have shown a larger majority for the Democrats.

The following table will show the vote from the various boxes of Milam County cast for the Democratic and Republican Electors. The names of Smith and Hoover as listed as representing the two parties:

City To Close Monday For Armistice Day

A report this morning from the Retail Merchants Association indicates the stores will close Monday, November 12 for Armistice Day celebration. The dry goods stores will close all day. Some of the grocery stores will close at ten o'clock for the remainder of the day and some will close at ten and open at 2 p. m.

Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Louisiana and Arkansas. Virginia the cradle of the Confederacy has voted Republican and elected a few Republican congressmen. The smallest number of states ever in the Democratic column are the remnants of the Republican landslide in 1928.

Next Monday we will have with us the ex-soldiers for the annual banquet and patriotic program. Just a brief decade since the guns stopped their sullen roar on a flaming front in Europe. Many of them did not return. Many came back with scars of battle and all returned with inward scars over the failure of civilization to establish a brotherhood among men. We do not rejoice in the glory of war but we honor the brave spirits who answered the call of America.

50 LOTS ARE SOLD IN AUCTION SALE HERE

POPULAR RESIDENCE SECTION TO SEE BOOM IN BUILDING IT IS THOUGHT

The auction sale of lots in the Country Club Addition owned by A. N. Green, was a success, more than 50 residence-building sites having been sold on Wednesday.

A Harris of New York City, who assisted in the sale of Hefley Heights and a nationally known realtor was engaged for the sale and results show that Mr. Harris made a success of the sale.

The awarding of $300 in gold was of interest. Among those who profited by the awards were Kyle Clifton, Albert Triggs, Jr., J. E. Bell and others.

A. N. Green expressed satisfaction over the progress of the sale and now believes that section is to see a real boom in building.

These lots are choice and represent a location where residential expansion is sure to come in the future.

Miss Martha Lou Hooks was at home last week end from Baylor University. She brought with her as her guest Miss Elizabeth Moncrief of Dallas, a senior at Baylor.

In one of the most sweeping victories in American politics Herbert Hoover has been elected to the Presidency carrying the electoral votes of 40 states. With Senator Curtis of Kansas, vice presidential candidate, the Republican nominee has gained the presidency and with the influence of the Hoover victory has come increased majorities in both houses of the congress.

The usual formalities of exchanging telegrams of congratulation and appreciation has been concluded and the election is settled.

Governor Alfred E. Smith in New York has issued a statement in which he declares he is through running for public office and will retire from the governorship of that state after 25 years of service to the people in elective office.

Looking upon the Republican victory as a vindication of great issues and a determination of the true road of progress, Herbert Hoover in his first message to the American people as president-elect, late today asked for a cooperation and unity of spirit, of all leaders of opinion and of action for the common service of the country.

"I can make no adequate expression of gratitude for the overwhelming confidence of our people, who, without regard to section or interest, have selected me for president of the whole United States," he said.

"There has been a vindication of great issues and a determination of the true road of progress. The republican party has again been assessed with a great responsibility. In this great hour there can be for me no feeling of victory or exultation. Rather it imposes a sense of solemn responsibility of the future and of complete dependence upon divine guidance for the task which the greatest office in the world imposes.

"That task is to give the best within me to interpret the common sense and the ideals of the American people.

"I can only succeed in my part by the cooperation and unity of spirit of all leaders of opinion and of action for the common service of our country."

The president-elect made public his statement at the first conference with newspaper men he had held since his election had been assured. He told the correspondents he had made no plans for the next few months and that his time would be occupied "chiefly with listening."

J. H. Sevier, a member of the high school faculty, visited in Austin last week-end and saw the Texas-S. M. U. game. With him was Mr. Wayne Craddock, football coach at Calvert.

MAJORITY OF 330 AT THE CAMERON BOX

MORE THAN TWO TO ONE FOR SMITH SHOWN BY RETURNS OF TUESDAY ELECTION

A majority for Governor Smith of 330 at the Cameron box is shown by the returns from the Tuesday election. The total being Smith 654 and Hoover 324.

Less than 1000 votes were polled, much less than the primary figure and less than was anticipated by the Democrats.

The Republican vote at the Cameron box was much greater than the Coolidge vote of 1924, but fell under the vote of Dr. Butte in 1924. The republican vote in Milam county fell under the Butte vote but was much greater than the Coolidge vote of 1924.

SILVER JUBILEE FOR CHURCH AT MARAK

BUILDING OF CHURCH IS CELEBRATED THERE OCTOBER THIRTY-FIRST

Wednesday of last week the members of the Marak Catholic Church celebrated the silver jubilee of the building of the Marak church. A large number of friends of the pastor, Rev. K. Kacer and of the members of the church, attended the celebration. At ten o'clock solemn High Mass was solemnized and after the services the ladies of the parish served dinner on the grounds.

In the afternoon B. P. Matocha introduced Judge Gillis, who, in his able manner addressed the gathering. In his speech he praised the people of the community for the moral progress and spoke highly of their splendid citizenship.

An auction sale took place and many useful and costly articles donated by the business men of Cameron and Buckholts were sold to the highest bidder. Five bales of cotton were auctioned off, the cotton bringing 28c per pound for one bale and 30c per pound for four. Dr. Newton, Paul Matyastik, First National Bank, Cameron, Wm. Kostroun and Miss Antonia Marak were the purchasers. The goods and cotton were auctioned off by B. P. Matocha of Cameron.

Simek's band from Corn Hill furnished the music during the day.

To the business men, who made this occasion a success, the pastor and members of the parish are deeply grateful.

Committee.

ARMISTICE GAME MONDAY NOV 12

CAMERON TO PLAY ROCKDALE ANNUAL GRIDIRON GAME AT ROCKDALE

The Yoemen will invade Rockdale on Monday, November 12 when they will clash with the Rockdale Tigers in the annual Armistice Day battle.

We all know how great a rivalry exists between the Yoemen and the Tigers and what a battle will rage on the Rockdale gridiron Monday. The Tigers have a 530 defeat of last year to avenge while the Yoemen have their honor to uphold and they are going to do it by downing the Tigers.

The two elevens are rather evenly matched although the dope favors the Yoemen.

When the tumult and the shouting dies on Monday afternoon we believe the Yoemen will come off the field of battle waving their banners of victory.

Don Slocumb came from A. & M. College last week-end to visit his parents, Mr and Mrs. Don Slocumb. He was accompanied by Leslie Dick of San Antonio, also a student of A. & M.

JOE TURNER TO MEET MIGHTY FINN TUESDAY

GERMAN CHALLENGER FOR BIG TITLE MATCHED WITH MIGHTY FINN HERE

Joe Turner will try to do what many have failed to do on Cameron mats—defeat Henry Karhunaari for the world's championship wrestling title in the middleweight division Tuesday night, November 13, according to announcement by W. E. Lamb, match maker who has arranged for the mat card at Wayside Inn.

Karhunaari claims a much disputed title. Records show his undisputed claim to the Finnish championship. He beat Waino Ketonen in their first meeting in Cameron but lost when he was hurt in their second match. Ketonen was at one time champion and still claims that distinction. He is the smartest wrestler ever seen here.

The Mighty Finn has beat them all. He has met and conquered Joe Montana, Joe Kopecky, Waino Ketonen, Cowboy Chick, Harry Demmeral, Lee Meyers and a long list of impressive men of the mat here.

Joe Turner is an unknown quantity here but hails from Wichita Falls where he has been meeting some of the best men of the country. Both men are working hard and the fans are expecting one of the best shows of the year.

POULTRY SHOW IS ATTRACTING INTEREST

Cotton Palace Records to Be Exceeded November 9 to 18

This year's poultry show at the Texas Cotton Palace Exposition in Waco, November 9 to 18, inclusive, is attracting more interest than any held in previous years, says John K. Strecker, who is in charge. Considering the fact that last year's show was one of the most notable held in the Southwest anticipations for a first class exhibit this year are justified.

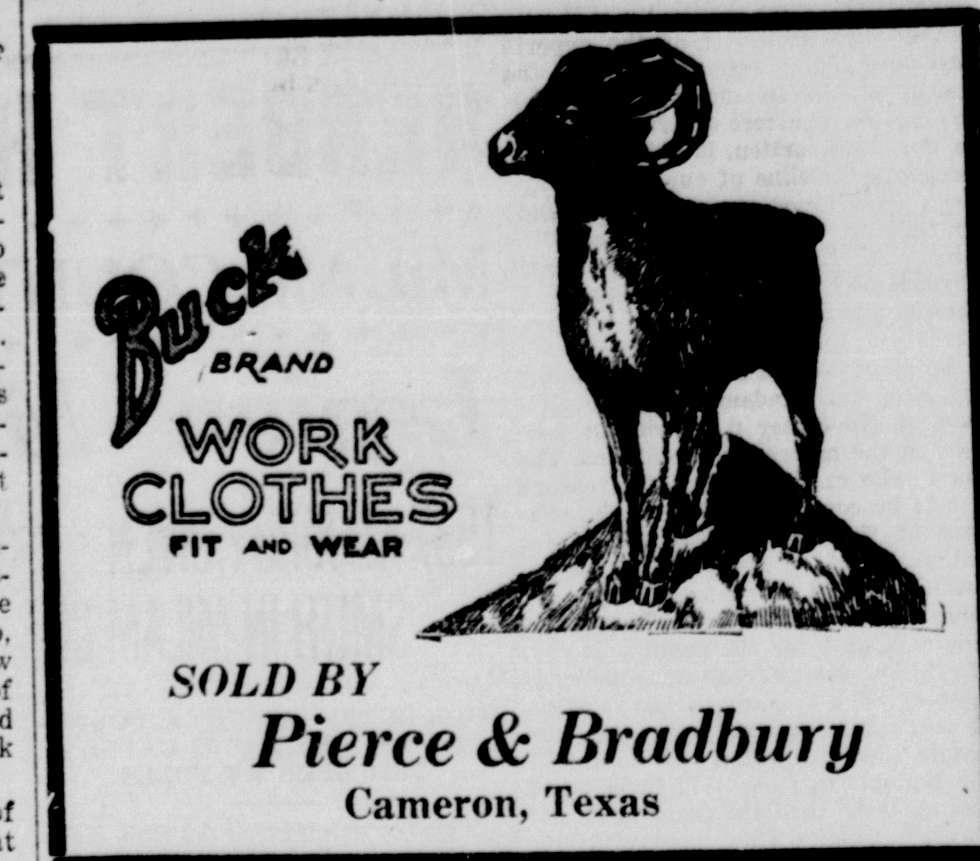

Entries of the American Bantam Association, the Southwestern Bantam Association, the Texas Silver Wyandotte Club, and two which were in the show last year: the Texas Branch of the American Cornish Club and the Texas White Plymouth Rock Club, are announced.

On account of the dates of the Cotton Palace, Nov. 9-18 at the time when poultry is in the best show condition, and the fact that the exhibit will last only 10 instead of 16 days, entries will be greatly increased, Strecker believes. Also, the Cotton Palace poultry show will follow the Dallas and the Shreveport fairs without overlapping their dates as formerly.

Special interest is being shown by local fanciers and breeders of fancy poultry throughout Central Texas and the state. Many of the national specialty clubs, including the National White Holland Turkey club, National White Leghorn club, National White Wyandotte club, and others are offering special ribbons for Cotton Palace winners. Judges will be C. P. Van Winkle, editor of Poultry News, Dallas and Walter Burton, superintendent of the poultry department of the Texas State Fair at Dallas.

Mrs. J. M. Bowman is in Dallas this week visiting her sister, Mrs. Collier.

Misses Dorothy Denson and Harriett Flinn are expected home this week from Southwestern University. Mr. and Mrs. Watt Skinner of Rogers were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Denson.

100 PIECE COMPACT IN ONE WALKING CANE

Unique Exhibits Are Announced for Texas Cotton Palace, November 9-18.

Two walking canes, hand-carved, and with interlocking pieces of wooden blocks will be exhibited at the Texas Cotton Palace Exposition in Waco, November 9 to 18th, inclusive, this year, by their owner and maker, D. Thornton, of Wortham, Texas.

One of the sticks was made out of a hundred pieces of wood coming from five different states. Thornton did the work in 75 hours using odd hours and rainy days and keeping close tab on his time. Each different variety of wood has the name stamped on it.

The other cane was started with the big end of a billiard cue in which he cut out a marble which remains inside the stick and has a couple of inches to play up and down in. Twenty-eight different kinds of wood are used in this stick with each piece dove-tailed onto each succeeding joint as in the other unique cane.

Both sticks were made by Thornton employing his pocket knife and a small saw only. Thornton is a farmer and does this work only as a pastime.

The third article is joined blocks of wood two pieces of poplar from Georgia and pressed through a hole in the center of a block of Texas bois d'arc. The poplar is notched so that when dried and expanded it cannot be released, forming somewhat of a puzzle.

Freight Audit Bureau For City Announced

Bob Dyer, traffic manager for the Cameron Cotton Oil Company, has announced a freight bureau for Cameron to be known as the Cameron Freight Audit Bureau to be managed by him. In this issue Mr. Dyer has an advertisement.

For six years Mr. Dyer was chief rate clerk in the office at Brenham for the Southern Pacific railroad and has a complete file dealing with railway freight traffic and is now traffic manager for the Cameron Cotton Oil Company. He has been in Cameron for three years and is well known among the merchants of the city. Freight bills as old as three years are checked and audited, thus eliminating overcharges on freight. Mr. Dyer will call on the merchants here and lay his proposition before them.

Communist Party Gets One Vote

One Communist party vote was cast at the Cameron box in the election on Tuesday, according to the returns certified by Preston Graves, manager of the election.

The Communist party is a subsidiary of the pure democracy of Red Russia. Members of that party are sometimes referred to as anarchists but this is not true. But the discovery of this new political faith in Cameron is interesting and although but one in number is a protest against the two major parties. No other votes save the Republican and Democratic votes were cast here.

BANKER-FARMER MOVEMENT GROWS

Funds Supplied by Banking Organizations in Many States to Finance Studies and Contests.

The nationwide movement being conducted by county and state bankers associations and the American Bankers Association in co-operation with the state agricultural colleges and county agents for the purpose of bringing about both local and national solutions for farm economic problems has shown notable results during the past year. A review of these activities in the Bulletin of the Agricultural Commission, American Bankers Association, summarizes some of the chief points as follows:

In Missouri a meeting was held at the College of Agriculture at which the bankers again appropriated $1,000 for boys' and girls' club work. Saline county bankers have raised $500 to stimulate beef calf clubs and report definite results obtained in getting farmers to lime their soil and grow alfalfa. County "key bankers" to promote banker support of farm betterment projects are being appointed and another Short Course in Agriculture for bankers is being planned.

In Kansas no less than fifteen counties are reported by the Extension Service as engaged in definite banker-farmer work. County key bankers attended four district conferences during the year.

The Louisiana bankers' agricultural committee met at the College of Agriculture in connection with a bankers' farm course. The bankers are thoroughly aroused to the wisdom of tick eradication and are co-operating to that end. County key bankers are being selected and county meetings with bankers throughout the state will be arranged.

Results Shown

In Kentucky key bankers have been appointed in each county with the result that the bankers of the state are co-operating with the College of Agriculture more specifically than any other group of business men. Some of the fruits of this co-operation is demonstrated by the fact that the number of dairy cattle in the state has increased seven per cent and the production per cow twelve per cent. Three counties in the state have eliminated all scrub bulls.

In North Carolina the outstanding accomplishments have been the honoring of "Class A Farmers," that is, those attaining a degree of proficiency in a well balanced and sound system of farming as indicated by a score card prepared by the College of Agriculture and the Bankers Short Course given there. Future plans provide for the continuation of the county key banker system and the arrangement of county banker-farmer tours.

In Virginia $15,000 has been raised by subscription for boys' and girls' club work, largely from bankers. A group meeting was held at the College of Agriculture with two hundred bankers in attendance. The Committee on Agriculture of the State Bankers Association voted to continue and check up on the county key banker work.

The reports from New York on the activities for the past year included the distribution of 20,000 short form farm credit statements prepared co-operatively by the agricultural college and bankers. The bankers' agricultural committee also arranged to send suggestions to the banks of the state to aid in financing purchase of dairy cattle to replace those lost by the tuberculin test.

Bankers' Farm Schools

Bankers' Farm Schools or "Short Courses" continued popular during the year. Several colleges held such courses under the auspices of the state bankers' agricultural committees and are repeating them this year.

"Minimum of Talk—Maximum of Demonstration" was the character of program put on by the Kansas Agricultural College for the second Bankers' Farm School in April. Four representatives were invited from each of twenty counties, consisting of the county key banker, the county agent, the secretary of the county bankers

ALL AMENDMENTS ARE DEFEATED IN MILAM

TRADITIONAL ANTIPATHY TO CHANGING CONSTITUTION SUSTAINED BY VOTE

Milam County's traditional stand against changes in the constitution seems to have been sustained in the Tuesday election as all proposed amendments were defeated.

The Confederate pension amendment polled the largest vote and on the basis of practically complete returns lacked only a little over 100 votes carrying.

The proposal to exempt church property, known as the parsonage amendment, lost by the heaviest majority on the face of the returns.

It will be noted in the other tables that four precincts have not reported, one being the box at Ad Hall where a large vote is cast.

The following table will show the vote on the amendments:

WARPATH IS FEATURE OF COTTON PALACE

Snake Girl, Breath-Taking Rides and Human Freaks All to Be Found on Midway.

A family of six people who weigh 3,274 pounds—or 540 pounds apiece average—and a performance in which the audience is convinced that a bullet passes through the body of a live woman. These are two of the entertaining acts which will be seen on the warpath of the Texas Cotton Palace at Waco from Nov. 9 to 18.

Since the warpath attractions prove one of the best drawing cards for the Cotton Palace, this year's midway entertainment is one of the best known obtainable traveling shows, the Morris and Castle company. For one thing, law enforcement officials recommend the organization and cleanliness of the shows. For another, they are bringing a monkey speedway, a "Darktown Shuffle Along" revue, a clean girl show and 10 or 12 other acts.

Human freaks and a collection of domestic animal freaks will be on exhibit. Boys and girls in the most thrilling show, the Globe of Death, turn somersaults and ride upside-down in defiance of gravity inside a steel ball. The monkey speedway, which delights youngsters, and Emogene, authority on reptiles who brings a living exhibit to illustrate her talks will be in evidence. The fun houses, "Revelation," free animal acts and a rodeo are announced by the Cotton Palace to be coming, and besides the merry-go-round, whip, ferris wheel and caterpillar that have been on the warpath before, there will be "dodge 'em," "hey-dey" and "dangler" in the way of novelty rides.

At night the warpath is one of the brightest spots in the Cotton Palace grounds. Morris and Castle have their own electric light plant in their $330,000 show, and it is strong enough to furnish a town of 5000 people with electricity. Colored banners, gold leaf fronts to the show cars and novelty lighting effects add color to the scene.

DEBUTANTES TO BE TWICE ON PARADE

Texas Cotton Palace Exposition Takes Pride in Announcement of Forthcoming Beauty.

Twice on parade, the debutantes of Texas, this year at the Texas Cotton Palace Exposition.

This was the announcement today from Exposition directors now planning the tremendous show of November 9 to 18th, inclusive, when decision was reached to present sweet and lovely young Texas girls first at the far-famed Texas Cotton Palace debutantes' reception, and again at a Cotton Dress Ball. The first event will be on the night of November 14 in the exposition's Coliseum; the second the following night, November 15, in the same place.

Because of the contrast presented between the attractions of Wednesday and Thursday nights, these promise to be two of the most interesting to spectators in the coliseum. Whereas sequins, rich satins and chiffons, feather fans and rhinestone buckles are evident in the coming out dresses of Central Texas debutantes on the first night, there are to be prizes for the most attractive costume that proves the least expensive on Thursday night. Mrs. Emma Perry Boles, county home demonstration agent, reports already that many McLennan county girls are sewing on their organdie, gingham and print dresses. One of the requirements for a winner is that she make a dainty set of underwear to accompany her dress.

WACO, Texas.—Feature days and feature programs will be the rule at the Texas Cotton Palace this year. A show of unusual merit will appear in the coliseum all of the first week, while a new and distinct program will be offered each day and night of the second week.

Miss Grace Beacham and her roommate, Miss Margaret Dewey of State University were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Beacham this week end.

J. W. Bailey, educational director of the Central Baptist church, Houston was a guest of the First Baptist church here Sunday.

Attorney and Mrs. S. M. Burns are rejoicing over the birth of twin boys on November 5 at the Cameron Hospital. The boys weigh six and a half and seven pounds respectively.

Mrs. Wm. Cobb and Mrs. Roy Law drove to Temple Saturday to see Miss Amy Wade who had an examination that day at the Scott and White clinic. Miss Wade is not seriously ill but felt the need of a thorough examination.

Among those from Cameron attending the J. M. Corley funeral services at Buckholts Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Claude McGregor, Mrs. Susie Sloan, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Blaylock, Mrs. Kathryn Robbins, T. F. Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Law, Judge John Watson and Judge Jeff Kemp.

Amendments Carry In Texas, Poll Shows On Late Returns

Indications are that all amendments to the state constitution have been carried in Texas.

The majority for the amendments was apparent from the beginning.

These amendments had champions in Cameron and there was much interest here although they failed to get as large vote as anticipated here and were defeated in the county.

"VAGABOND KING" ASSURED TEXANS

Greatest of Recent Broadway Successes Secured for Texas Cotton Palace, November 10.

While the entire nation is talking about the "Vagabond King," greatest of recent Broadway successes and scanning its schedule in anticipation of its arrival at favored communities, an early date for its primary presentation will be Waco, Texas, during the famous Texas Cotton Palace Exposition, November 9 to 18th, inclusive.

This announcement came today from exposition headquarters following signing by authorities for the elaborate extravaganza which has set the east talking. The date of its presentation in Waco is to be on the night of November 10 in the great Coliseum.

The show will come down on its first run out of New York, where it proved an unusual hit during its entire run, and signing of the contract to bring it here is considered more important than the arrangement which brought the Follies to the Cotton Palace last year.

Complete and elaborate scenery, a full cast of actors who will have in their personnel several theatrical notables, and an accompanying orchestra that will assure extraordinary enjoyment of the show are some of the reasons why Waco and Central Texas may look forward to this event with unusual expectation.

Besides the securing of "The Vagabond King," Cotton Palace officials announce a number of other attractions that will make this year's show an out-of-the-ordinary fair.

During each night of the Cotton Palace there will be staged in the coliseum some event, in most of which attendants at the fair will themselves participate. With the opening Friday night, which is an innovation as far as the usual custom has been, the exposition will be launched formally by Governor Dan Moody before the annual cotton parade, the latter set for Saturday morning. Following the Broadway musical comedy Saturday night, there will be a concert or a movie Sunday night and Children's Night is the Monday program. Mrs. Ella Lovelace is to be in charge.

Coronation of King and Queen Cotton, one of the biggest social events of the Cotton Palace, is to be held Tuesday night, Nov. 13. Speculation is already rife as to who the royal personages will be, and what the motif for this year's coronation ceremony will prove. Tom Bush is director in charge and Mrs. Louis Stephens is woman's chairman, with a staff of Waco workers. Of equal interest is the debutantes' reception on Wednesday night, of which W. J. Neale is director in charge. Names of several of Waco's younger set of girls have been suggested as among those coming out this year, but no definite announcement has been made yet.

RED WAGON SURE SIGN BIG SHOW IS COMING

If You See It's Dust on Highway, Remember the Cotton Palace at Waco.

A never failing sign that the Texas Cotton Palace Exposition will soon open is on the roads of Central Texas now. It is the red advertising car "advance man" of the great mid-Texas show which makes an annual tour of localities within a 100 mile radius of Waco to put up posters and window cards and placards, announcing the advent of this exposition.

Besides going to towns and cities along railroads, the red car goes to those which are reached only by highway and leaves its message about livestock and agricultural exhibits, Warpath attractions and Coliseum entertainments which will be staged this year from opening night, November 9, through the closing date, November 18.

The red car will be driven for the third consecutive year by Herbert Wilson.

FIRST DEFEAT FOR CAMERON YOEMEN

CALDWELL KEEPS RECORD OF ANNUAL VICTORY OVER MAROONS

The Yoemen suffered their first defeat in the interscholastic race when they were stung by the powerful Caldwell Hornets by the score of 31-0 on Friday, November 2 in Caldwell.

The Yoemen inspired by the great support given them, fought valiantly from whistle to whistle, although they were fighting with their backs to the wall most of the time.

All of the Caldwell scores came directly or indirectly from fumbles committed by the Yoemen deep in their own territory, except one touchdown which was made on an intercepted pass.

The Yoemen made their greatest bid for a score in the last minute of play in the first half when they carried the pigskin 60 yards down the field before the whistle stopped their assault.

Captain Hitchcock and Rogers were the stellar performers for the Yoemen and were in practically every play while Deer made some nice gains through the line.

Godby, the six foot, seven inch full back and Captain McDonald were the leaders of the Caldwell attack.

The morale of the Yoemen was not broken down by the defeat and they are looking forward to the Rockdale game where they intend to make up for the defeat.

INDIGESTION

And Other Common Troubles Helped by Black-Draught.

"I think we owe the remarkable healthy record of our family to the use of Black-Draught," says Mrs. J. H. Luther, 514 W. Belknap St., Ft. Worth, Tex. "I was suffering from an attack of indigestion. Somebody recommended Black-Draught to me, and I got some and tried it. I felt so much better, after I had taken it, that I used it the next time I was sick, and then the next. I soon found it to be a dependable medicine to use for my family. "Whenever the children had colds, or an upset stomach, I treated them with Black-Draught." Sold everywhere; 25c.

The Unreasonable Hen

YOU can't reason with a hen. She's unreasonable. You can't say, "Now Julia (or whatever the hen's name is), you stay up and have a little supper before you go to roost. And don't sleep too late in the morning. You must catch up on your egg-laying." Nobody can say that to a hen. But you can make hens do that, just the same. Get a Delco-Light plant and give 'em electric lights to eat by. Hens don't like to eat in the dark. And if they don't eat and scratch around a lot, they simply don't lay eggs!

We've got some interesting facts about electric lights and eggs. If you'll call us up or drop in and see us, we'll tell you how a lot of chicken farmers have made their hens increase egg production at an enormous rate. And we don't believe bigger egg profits would make you feel bad. Would they?

TRADE BRIEFS

C. W. Bradbury of Pierce & Bradbury presents a November Campaign of sales for the store at Cameron. At the same time similar campaigns are presented in Navasota and at Kingsville where Mr. Bradbury and Louis S. Pierce have stores. The November Campaign is a mighty bargain offering in dry goods and the people of this section will be interested to read the page announcement in this issue of The Herald. Mr. Bradbury offers in this sale a multitude of bargains on merchandise that is seasonable and needed by the people. This big store is making preparation for the big sale that opens on Friday morning and to continue through the month of November. Read the big ad and the circulars sent out this week to the people of this section. This big store is a contributing factor to the supremacy of Cameron as a trade center.

The Cone Implement Company, Cameron's newest commercial enterprise is now well situated in the Chambers building over the Schiller Motor Company under the management of Cecil Cone with a fine display of international Harvester Company implements. The improved methods of farming have brought about the necessity for greater efficiency in farm machinery and in this display Mr. Cone has an exceptional offering for the farmers. In addition to the implements he is selling and servicing the International Truck, famous transportation unit that is now serving many satisfied users in this territory. Mr. Cone believes the new store will serve a large number of farmers who will buy improved machinery this year.

The "One Cent Sale" so far as we know is a distinct American institution. Whether that be true or false, we do not know, but certainly it is the most remarkable stunt in modern merchandising. For value giving it of course has no equal in sales. For one cent you get an article just like the one you pay for at the regular price. Stores handling the merchandise that permits the sale, believe that the sale of goods in this manner is a profitable advertising medium. It is certain that a wide distribution of goods ensues from these bargain sales. But newspaper and circular advertising must be done first and that brings us to consider the half page advertisement in the last issue of The Herald for the New Cameron Drug Company. Smiling Joe Denson believes the November 1c sale will be the greatest in the history of the store. The sale starts today and continues until Saturday November 10th. Large shipments of Rexall merchandise of every kind have been received and will be on display early for the big sale.

Despite the fact that the Model T Ford has been discontinued and the rapid spread of other makes of low priced cars, more than eight million of these cars are now in operation in this country. Hubert Hefley Motor Company in listing the cost of overhauling the Model T presents this startling statement of fact. It costs very little to recondition the Model T Fords and he repair department of the company here finds an enormous amount of work to be done in servicing these models because of the great number in this county and they afford an outlet for many thousands of dollars in parts.

The Peter Produce Company gave Cameron the first major effort to bring recognition to the value of poultry and produce raised on the farms. This company from a small beginning here some five or six years ago has come to be one of the major commercial enterprises of the city. By providing an up to date cash market for produce the Peter Company has impressed on the farmers everywhere the value of engaging in raising chickens and turkeys. Now the annual volume of business is enormous. Thousands of dollars are paid out each fall to farmers for turkeys. An advertisement in The Herald of last week announced intentions to open the dressing plant in Cameron on November 1. W. H. Shipp, the wide awake manager of the plant believes the turkey crop this year will be large and the farmers will get good returns from this source of revenue.

The largest and lowest on Tires is the title of an advertisement by Horstmann Brothers Tire Store in Cameron. This big tire store in addition to the tire business sells and services Hudson and Essex cars and have a large number of them in the hand of satisfied owners. Tire buyers will be interested in the November offerings and the low prices on Firestone tires.

Chas. C. Smith has made a splendid contribution to the tailoring industry of Cameron with the installation of the Coffield and Moore odorless cleaning system. This equipment has just been placed in the tailor shop of Mr. Smith and is attracting the admiration of the people. The machinery offer the latest in cleaning devices and is odorless, using Varklen the new national cleaning product five times as effective as gasoline.

The season of Delco lighting plants is at hand and The Herald is presenting a series of advertisements for the Keith Electric Company on Delco lights. The Keith Electric Company also sells and services Frigidaire the great refrigeration plant for the home.

Cameron's newest market is the Price and Torno market located in the building across the street from the J. P. Werner Store. Both men are well known here and express satisfaction over the showing of their business for the first week of its operation.

Farm implements, presenting John Deere Implements is an interesting advertisement of the Milam County Hardware Company. Since the enlargement of the building of the company the display rooms now show these implements to advantage.

Bible Class Will Equip Department

Members of the Friendly Bible Class of the Methodist church held a business meeting at the Methodist parsonage last Friday afternoon, with the president, Mrs. A. J. Triggs, presiding, several matters of business were disposed of.

A committee was appointed to make arrangements for the complete furnishing of the Sunday School room at the church. It was decided to establish a Home Department for members of the class who are kept away from Sunday School because of illness or some similar reason. The plan of a "Sunshine Lady" or "Capsule Sister" was adopted until Christmas. The next social meeting of the members will be in the nature of a Christmas party on December 21. Each person will bring one gift for another member of the class and also a gift for some poor person.

Mrs. Ramsey, the hostess, served cream and cake at the conclusion of the business session.

Masquerade Party For Senior Class

Climaxing the Halloween season, members of the Senior Class of Yoe High School gathered at the Country Club last Wednesday evening for an enjoyable masquerade party. Halloween decorations prevailed everywhere. In one corner of the main reception room there was a fishing booth, at which novelty Halloween favors were fished for.

The fortune teller, Miss Delphya Scott, who read palms gave her audiences in a tent set up under the high porch of the club house. Red lanterns placed at intervals directed the guests to her.

Tables were placed for bridge and forty-two and dancing was also a diversion for some, the music being furnished by the radio and an orthophonic victrola.

A punch bowl in the reception hall was presided over by different members of the class and punch and sandwiches were served during the evening.

Guests of the class included members of the high school faculty, Mrs. Gus Evans and little Charlotte Perkins.

TUESDAY BRIDGE CLUB

The Tuesday Bridge Club met Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock with Miss Earl Bragg as hostess. Three games were played at the conclusion of which Mrs. Dan Tyson had won high score. No prizes are given in the club but it was decided to keep a record of high score winners for the year.

The resignation of Mrs. Ben Atkinson was accepted with regrets and new members were welcomed into the club.

The hostess served a salad plate and hot tea to the club members and two guests, Mrs. A. T. Epperson and Miss Taylor.

GAUSE

The Halloween Carnival given at the school house Wednesday night under the auspices of the P. T. A. was a big success. Under the supervision of the faculty several booths were conducted in real carnival fashion. Although the weather was inclement a large crowd attended and $40 was realized which will be spent for the school.

The P. T. A. met Thursday at the school house in regular meeting. This being a regular business session quite a number of items were attended to and some committees appointed for future plans.

Gause received a fine rain Wednesday night and Thursday morning of last week and a slow rain is falling today (Monday).

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Russel and son spent Sunday in Waco.

H. L. Taylor of Houston was a visitor in the A. Varner home a few days last week. He was accompanied home by Mrs. Varner who will visit her daughter, Mrs. Robert Dady for several days.

Mrs. Greene of Hearne has returned.

When Winter Comes

You use more Electricity!

DAYLIGHT HOURS are longer from April to September. These are the outdoor months. Picnicking, driving, swimming—all kinds of outdoor sports claim your time during these longer days.

From September to March daylight hours are shorter and therefore electric light hours are longer. Less outdoor playtime and more indoor amusement. Electricity makes the indoor hours joyous. It furnishes light and heat, cooks the meals, operates the radio, the victrola, and performs dozens of jobs that would otherwise be a hardship.

Electricity is the boon companion of shorter days and longer nights. You use more of it in the winter and it gives you countless pleasures, conveniences and comforts.

This chart shows the average number of hours in which electric lights are used in the average home for each month in the year.

January	- 6 Hours, 32 Minutes
February	- 5 Hours, 38 Minutes
March	- 4 Hours, 10 Minutes
April	- 3 Hours, 48 Minutes
May	- 2 Hours, 57 Minutes
June	- 2 Hours, 33 Minutes
July	- 2 Hours, 36 Minutes
August	- 3 Hours, 9 Minutes
September	- 4 Hours, 00 Minutes
October	- 4 Hours, 54 Minutes
November	- 6 Hours, 11 Minutes
December	- 6 Hours, 51 Minutes

This chart shows why your light bill is higher for the winter months than it is for the summer months. It is higher simply because there are more hours of darkness in winter than there are in summer.

When Columbus' mutinous sailors refused to go any farther and threatened to put Columbus in chains, he never flinched or wavered, but kept pressing on. Calling his mutinous crew together he reasoned with them and tried to recharge them with courage and hope. "But Admiral," asked one, "what shall we do when hope is gone?" "Sail on, sail on, sail on and on," was the answer of the dauntless Columbus.

And this is what the community booster must do. There comes times when it seems to every community booster that every one else is pulling back and he alone is pulling for the best interest of the town. When those who should trade at home are spending their money elsewhere and when community pride and spirit seems flagging.

Then is the time when the community boosters should sail on, sail on, sail on and on and work all the harder for the home town and its interests and if the town is ever to succeed and go forward the time will come when those who are failing in its hour of need will see the light and unite in their efforts for a bigger, better, more prosperous community.

The Days of the Tallow Candle and Rubber Stamp Stationery Are Gone

No merchant would think of lighting his store with tallow candles. It would be the poorest sort of economy. Yet we see merchants these days who are practicing methods just as obsolete by using rubber stamped stationery.

Rubber stamp stationery creates the same impression among recipients of one's letters that tallow candles would as a method of store lighting.

Modern merchandising methods require modern facilities and good stationery is an essential part of any office equipment.

Let us call and show you samples.

The Cameron Herald

VOLUME ADDS VALUE TO NEW OAKLAND

CUSTOM-LIKE CAR POSSIBLE BY ECONOMICAL MASS
PRODUCTION

Pontiac, Mich., Nov. 7. Motoring America greeted with extraordinary enthusiasm the latest line of Oakland All-American Sixes now on display at dealer showrooms throughout the country, according to reports received at the factory here.

From indications of the reception accorded the car, W. R. Tracy, vice president in charge of sales of the Oakland Motor Car Company, stated that beyond question the latest All-American would sweep to sales record higher than ever before attained by any Oakland model put out in the 22 years the company has been manufacturing automobiles.

The general impression made by the line, advices from field headquarters state, is that of a totally new automobile—totally different from any car now on the road. The powerful-appearing front end, of exclusive design, achieves a distinctive air that new body lines and smart Duco color combinations bear out to the sweep of the beautifully proportioned back panel.

Thousands of people who already have seen the car commented particularly upon the two new models added to the line this year—the landaulet sedan and the convertible cabriolet. Both fittingly illustrate how the economies of mass production are making available to the public an increasing number of "fine car" features at moderate cost.

The Landaulet, as the name implies follows in desing a custom-built car, and boasts smartness at moderate cost that formerly was believed exclusive to Park avenue.

This model is the only one of its kind on the market in the medium-low priced field, listing at only $1375 f. o. b. the factory.

While following in general appearance an ultra-smart sport landaulet sedan, the landaulet is equipped with a soft folding fabric top over the rear quarter section. This may be easily and quickly lowered for openair summer driving and as easily closed for protection against the weather. The rear compartment is roomy and deep, with a small window in the rear, imparting an intimate and cozy air to the interior.

A limousine rug, period hardware and other luxurious fittings give the interior a richness in keeping with the aristocratic exterior.

The landaulet sedan is the highest priced car in the latest All-American line, the seven body types listing from $1145 to $1375—all prices f. o. b. factory, with Lovejoy shock absorbers and fitted spring covers included in the list price.

While particular attention focused upon the landaulet sedan for its appearance of having been built by costly hand methods, a high measure of enthusiasm also is being shown for the convertible cabriolet.

This model has a rumble seat folding down flush into the rear deck in which two extra passengers may be carried. The seat is upholstered in weatherproof composition fabric and is equipped with arm rests. A rear compartment door opens into the forward end of the deck and affords ample space for golf clubs and medium-sized parcels.

The cabriolet has two side ventilators operated by foot control—as do all closed models—and in addition a top cowl ventilator. Upholstery is of rich genuine leather.

In endowing the new Oakland line with unique lines unlike any other car now on the road, from grill front cross-flow radiator to "tailor made" rear fender guards, Oakland artist-engineers cooperating with craftsmen of the Fisher Body organization, sought to achieve eight major body features; 1, correct seating position; 2, freedom from rattle or rumble; 3, rigid brace-ing; 4, durability; 5, strength and safety; 6, form fitting cushions; 7, side cowl ventilators and 8 adjustable driver's seat to suit individual preferences.

These features have been incorporated in every one of the closed types. The minute attention to detail making for the comfort of passengers extends even to a rear vision mirror constructed of pale blue glass so that in night driving the glare of an approaching headlight will not blind the driver.

The sleek, low, dashing appearance of the bodies was achieved by slightly reducing the height of the windows. This was accomplished by dropping the roof line slightly and raising the belt line, thus giving the windows a longer appearance and the impression of a much lower body. By increasing the arch of the roof this effect was achieved without sacrifice of head room.

This sleek appearance was further emphasized by the use of an oval window in the rear instead of the conventional type, and by a higher belt line and a symmetrically proportioned back panel. The result is a rear end view as striking as the powerful appearing hood and radiator when viewed from the front.

Particular care also was taken to seal the bodies against all undesirable drafts. The floor boards in the front driver's compartment are covered with flexible felt pads that fit snugly around the foot pedals and other controls to keep out all currents of air sweeping under the car. A heavy insulating pad also covers the dash to prevent heat and noise of the engine from reaching the front compartment.

With the exception of the convertible cabriolet, all closed types are upholstered in genuine heavy mohair in solid colors that blend with the smart new exterior Duco combinations. The cabriolet is upholstered in leather, and the open sport types in Spanish leather.

While production on the new line is going forward at a rapid rate at the new Oakland factory the enthusiasm the new line is engendering leads officials of the Oakland Motor Car Company to believe that the public demand for the new car will keep production at its top-most level for many months to come.

Calvert Editor Tells How Small Town Man Finds Life's Riches

Editor's Note—John R. Brougher, new editor of the Calvert Tribune makes his bow to the people of that vicinity in the following editorial entitled "Small Town Stuff." The Herald editor has known John Brougher for a number of years, having been associated with him in the chosen profession when the Calvert editor was Associated Press Correspondent in Austin.)

"I am the 'new editor,' to the people of Calvert, but the situation I am in is not new to me. I am a small town man, who grew from a small town boy, and who saw the error of his ways when he went to the city. I left the city before I was either run down by an automobile or frozen to death by the coldness of its ways.

When I left Texas City my last small town, early in the summer, I was bitten by the city bug but was soon cured by the rush and bustle of Houston. I began looking for another small town which was willing to adopt me and mine as their own, and Calvert is my choice. I am making a sincere bid for your friendship and fellowship, the qualities which are so sadly missing in the cities.

The city man has covered himself, in protection, with a leathery shell, as did the ancient aquatic creatures when they first ventured from the quietness of the depth into the more eventful life along the shorelines.

The city man originally was not as heartless and cold as he seems while plowing through crowds oblivious to the person with whom he rubs elbows and with a set gaze which beholds only enough of his surroundings to make progress possible. The farm boy in a so-called empty pasture sees more in the birds plants and insects than the man of the teeming street sees in his fellows, for he latter is hiding under his shell from the countless blows which are aimed at his attention—blows which take into consideration his attempt at self protection and try to find his tender spots.

Little wonder that his hide has become tough. Newspapers hammer at him with heavy headlines, electric signs sear him with glaring brilliancy; the colors of a drunken artists nightmare are borrowed to deck his food and drink; shows strive to make an impression with repeated shocks to his sense of moral fitness; even his music is piercing.

He is the target of a thousand darts. Misery and deformity are paraded before him—behind a barricade of lead pencils. Beauty in distress spreads a tricky net for the first faltering of his feet.

The city man is a product of evolution and is carrying a shell developed from the bruises and callouses left upon his soul by the street. He is the most hunted of all creatures and in time becomes the most wary because of toes nipped by the trap behind every bait.

Possibly my skin may be too thin for the city, but its ceaseless grind leaves me sore and longing for the less exacting life of the smaller town, where folk have time to be friends and neighbors, and have time to ascertain the kind of a fellow one is. A little money makes the man in the city, but to be a real man in a small town, where your contacts are closer one must really be a real man. While I may not be the real man, I know that in the small town there is an opportunity to find and enjoy those who can meet that test.

So here I am, in Calvert, where I hope and plan to make a permanent home, a home close enough to the scene of my activities to allow me to be with my family at least three times a day and a home where my youngsters will not see signs which say in effect, 'Children and dogs not allowed.' That may appear strong, so some of the landlords of the city modify it by leaving out the dogs when they write their signs.

CONSTANT EXPANSION

—to serve Chevrolet owners better

SINCE January 1st more than a million new Chevrolets have been delivered to owners—making the Chevrolet Motor Company, for the second consecutive year, the world's largest builder of automobiles!

This outstanding achievement has been attained not only because of the quality and value of Chevrolet cars—but also because there has been a constant expansion of Chevrolet service facilities.

In order to bring these mammoth facilities of the Chevrolet factories to Chevrolet dealers and owners everywhere, there have been erected 26 huge parts warehouses in the principal centers of distribution. This expansion program is continually going on—for four great additional warehouses will be in operation by January first and seven more by the summer of 1929.

Into the service departments of all Chevrolet dealers, Chevrolet has brought special tools and shop equipment—designed under the supervision of Chevrolet engineers. This equipment definitely assures maximum speed and precision and the lowest possible cost in the performance of every Chevrolet service and repair operation—which are charged for on a flat rate basis.

Furthermore, all of these tremendous facilities have been made available to 15,000 authorized service stations manned by skilled mechanics, over 25,000 of whom have been factory trained to efficiently handle every repair operation on a Chevrolet car. In addition, there are over 4,000 other points where genuine Chevrolet parts may be obtained.

Uniformly efficient, uniformly reliable and within easy reach of everybody everywhere—this great service organization is maintaining at peak efficiency the fine performance for which Chevrolet cars have always been renowned.

We cordially invite you to come in and see how our service facilities reflect the influence of this great national service program.

Lesson for November 11

PEACE AND GOOD WILL AMONG MEN

LESSON TEXT—Rom. 12:1, 2, 9-21.
GOLDEN TEXT—Love worketh no ill to his neighbor, therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Treating Each Other Right.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Treating Each Other Right.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How to Promote Good Will.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Message and Program of World Peace.

I. The Christian's Relation to God (vv. 1, 2).

He is dedicated to God. He consciously presents his entire being to God.

1. The basis of this dedication (v. 1). "The mercies of God." The grand reason for the dedication of ourselves to God is because we are recipients of the mercies of God. The dynamic which makes possible our yielding to God is the gospel which is the power of God unto salvation. Our union with Christ makes us willing and able to give ourselves to God.

2. The nature of the dedication (v. 1).

(1) An act of the free will. Those who voluntarily present themselves to God, He consecrates to His service. (2) It embraces the whole man (v. 1). By "bodies" is meant the entire personality—spirit, soul and body (1 Thess. 5:23). (3) It is a living sacrifice (v. 1). In the Old Testament the victim was slain before being placed upon the altar, but in our case God wants our bodies as living instruments of service. (4) It is for rational service (v. 1). The logical outcome of our union with Christ is an intelligent service for Him.

3. The obligation of the one dedicated to the Lord (v. 2). It is non-conformity to this world. The one who has handed himself over to the Lord will not be fashioned by this evil age (1 John 5:19).

II. The Christian's Relation to His Fellow-Believer (vv. 9-13).

1. Love without hypocrisy (v. 9). We should not pretend to love people while hating them in our hearts. Feigned love is disguised hate.

2. Abhor the evil and cleave to the good (v. 9). God's children must be like Him. God hates wickedness of all sorts, so His children will have the same attitude toward sin that He has. 3. Be kindly affectioned one to another (v. 10). Real brotherly love is that which passes between those who are of one blood—members of the same family. In Christ we are really members one of the other.

4. In honor preferring one another (v. 10). This is most difficult. It is natural to claim the best places for ourselves. Christ pleased not Himself. 5. Not slothful in business (v. 11). This refers primarily to spiritual affairs—to the church life which is to be characterized by zeal, energy and warmth, being regarded as service to the Lord.

6. Rejoicing in hope (v. 12). Afflictions will surely come to the Christian, but in all trials he should be filled with hope of future glory.

7. Patient in tribulation (v. 12). This blessed hope will make possible a life of patience.

8. Continuing in prayer (v. 12). Only by constant and persistent prayer shall we be able to live above our circumstances and fix our hope upon Him whose coming shall bring deliverance from all our trials and transform us into His glorious likeness.

9. Distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality (v. 13). It is obligatory on Christians to aid fellow Christians who are destitute.

III. The Christian's Relation to Unbelievers (vv. 14-21).

1. Do good for evil (v. 14). We are to bless those who persecute us.

2. Be sympathetic (v. 15). We should rejoice with those who rejoice and weep with those who weep. This was pre-eminently fulfilled in Christ while on earth, and in heaven now He enters into our joys and sorrows as our sympathetic High Priest.

3. Find points of agreement (v. 16). We should seek for points of agreement in all things.

4. Live honestly before all men (v. 17). Our manner of life should be that which will commend the grace of God in Christ.

5. Live in peace (v. 18). We should exhaust every means to bring about reconciliation. If the other party will not yield we should see to it that it is not our fault.

6. Be not vindictive (vv. 19-21). Instead of demanding eye for eye and tooth for tooth, we should heap coals of fire upon our enemies by deeds of kindness.

Jesus at the Door

If Jesus Christ is at this time knocking at the door of your heart, the fact is that He is on the outside. And if He is on the outside, there is but one person who can let Him in, and that is yourself.—O. B.

Live Right

While you live right, nothing goes wrong; a soul at peace with God cannot be greatly disturbed by the world, for it hath its pleasures in God and its blessings from God.—Jackson.

MEYERS GOES DOWN TO DEFEAT BEFORE FINN

HENRY KARHUNSAARI RETAINS TITLE AND IS READY FOR MORE MATCHES

The Mighty Finn is still supreme and stands ready to defend his title against any man on earth in the middleweight division of wrestling.

Lee Meyers of Houston was defeated last Thursday night at Wayside Inn by Henry Karhunsari in one fall, being unable to return to the mat after one hour and seventeen minutes of grueling work.

The Finn found in Meyers a tough man capable of the best achievements on the mat. Superior craft and endurance brought Henry the victory. Fans here have seen him win so many matches they believe he is invincible and Henry believes he can beat any man in the world.

The match with Billy Londos, the West Texas Tornado, has been postponed until late in November because Londos is matched for this week and in order to have a match for the fans W. E. Lamb has matched the Finn with Joe Turner of Wichita Falls.

Lee Meyers, it is said wants a return match with Karhunsari and this will be given in the near future.

Vic Miller has written to Mr. Lamb here requesting matches. Vic is known as the hard luck wrestler but is one of the best men ever seen on the mat here.

"Smith-Hoover" Party Unique Feature Social Week in Cameron

One of the most original and clever parties of the season was the Smith-Hoover Bridge given by Mrs. Oxsheer Smith last Friday afternoon at her beautiful home on North Jackson Street. Guests began to suspect the nature of the party upon arrival when the noted donkeys, signifying the Democratic party, staked on the lawn, and a picture of Smith and Hoover on either side of the entrance. Here were also large United States flags.

A red white and blue color scheme was chosen in the decorations. Red roses and fragrant white flowers were placed to advantage in baskets and vases. Red, white and blue ribbons added a touch of color here and there. At one end of the spacious reception room was a picture of Governor Smith and facing it at the other end was one of Mr. Hoover.

Score cards were shaped as donkeys and elephants, and table score pads were fashioned from cartoons taken from current magazines bearing on the presidential race. At the conclusion of the games Miss Aetna Smith passed a miniature ballot box into which each guest placed her vote—her score card with score added and name attached. Then after looking over the 'votes' it was found that Miss Grace Mangum had won high score and she was given a luster ware teapot in elephant design, reminding one of the teapot dome scandal in connection with the Republican party. Mrs. Ernest Beard won low score for the Hoover delegation and Mrs. Fritz Fahrendorf for the Smith and they received paper weights in the shape of an elephant and a donkey respectively.

Late in the afternoon the hostess served a salad plate consisting of shrimp salad, sandwiches, pickles, crystallized apple tinted in natural shade and raspberry punch.

Mrs. F. J. Beckerman proved a gracious hostess for the As You Like It

Club in regular meeting last Wednesday afternoon. Guests other than club members were Mesdames Claude Bradbury, Conn Miller, W. L. Hightower of Waelder and Ernest Beard of Hillsboro.

The hostess instructed her guests to come prepared to do embroidery work. She gave each one a stamped bath towel to work. The towels bore one of three designs and she had a model of each design. To the person in each of the three groups finishing her towel first was given the model and these were won by Mrs. A. N. Green, Mrs. W. H. Henley and Mrs. E. A. Flinn.

Roses, ferns and queen's wreath were used in decorating the living and the dining room and the Halloween motif was carried out in the refreshments. Napkins were in orange and black design. A salad plate of chicken salad, crackers, sandwiches, olives, hot chocolate and cream was served and the plate favor was a Halloween basket filled with candy.

Safe Plan For Farm Relief Told By Reese

Willard Reese who is now in Mississippi preparing for management of the Cheese Factory in Cameron has sent to this editor copy of an editorial there giving what is considered a safe and effective plan of farm relief:

Much is being said from the platform and through the press about farm relief and every candidate is urging this plan of helping the farmer. In spite of all of the propaganda, and political sop we predict that most of the farmers who are helping in the next four years will get the greater part of the help through their own efforts.

An example of a county that has worked out the problem of farm relief on a very satisfactory basis is found in Greene county, Wisconsin. Not many years ago the soil in this county became depleted in plant food from continued cropping in grain, just as the soil in Milam has been affected by the continued growing of cotton. Something had to be done, and the hardy Swiss settlers didn't sit idly by and wait for the government to hand them relief by political means. They knew that this wasn't the way to get it. They turned from grain raising to dairying. Fields that were poor from grain cropping were seeded in clover and grasses. Cows were brought in and the cheese industry started.

Just how well this plan of farm relief has succeeded may be determined by a few figures taken from reliable sources as to the present condition of Greene county. On Dec. 31, 1927 the banks of this county had $10,800,000 on deposit, with additional bank resources of $1,500,000. In the city of Monroe alone three banks had total deposits of more than five millions. The assessed valuation of the farms in 1927, was more than $55,000,000. The dairy income of the county was more than $7,000,000 in 1926 and farm property was valued at more than $46,000,000.

In Greene county there are 2,403 farms and 1633 of these farms are owned by the people who operate them. The county has a system of concrete roads costing more than four million, and there is an automobile for every 2.7 persons in the county.

We believe that these figures are convincing as to how well this plan of farm relief has succeeded. We don't believe these Swiss people are any more intelligent than the people of Milam county. We believe the people of Milam county can build just as profitable industry as Green county, Wis. Now is the time to start. Let's go.

WHAT WE THINK

By Frank Dixon

Next to knowing when you ARE well off is NOT to know when you AREN'T.

"He's the sort of a person," a man was heard to say, "who thinks it's wicked to flirt with a girl in a restaurant until after she has paid her check."

Another way to avoid growing old is to be a chicken and pause to wonder which side of the street is nearer.

My friend Ethel says that a bird with a car is worth two on the hoof.

A German recently broke the continuous piano playing record by going it for 82 hours. We know of no one over here who can actually play that long, though we believe a number of them can make it seem that long.

Our genial editor in Sikeston says: "There was a prophet in our midst recently. He held an audience for about an hour with his talk against vice and wickedness and his prophecy of a war seven times as great and as bad as the great World War which he said, would come within two years if the wicked, sinful world did not repent and follow God. He made a striking figure with his long, flowing hair that reached almost to his waist, a full white beard and long black robe. When asked why he did not cut his hair he answered that since our sisters, grandmothers and great-grandmothers were now bobbing their hair, he had not been able to find an empty barber chair.

A Gelena Republican says: "What we can't understand is that the government finds it is so difficult to discover fake stocks and the sucker finds it so easy."

Hot air isn't energy.

It is easier to learn to talk more than it is for a person afflicted with the other extreme to correct it.

We still believe the reason why some men remain honest is because they are watched so close.

A Joplin, Mo., editor friend of mine recently remarked: "Sometimes in the good old days, forty years ago, when there were no movies or motor cars, a happy evening was entirely used by going through the family photograph album. Of course that could happen now if the family could ever be assembled together at one time."

These young sprouts get off some good ones on their clever bill boards. I just noted a new one today. It read, "Don't high hat me, girls. You would not look good either, without a coat of paint."

Here is a problem that many a man has been trying to solve: "If the outgo is more than the income, what will the outcome be?"

If you have difficulty finding parking space now, think what it will amount to when Henry Ford gets those 800,000 orders now on the books filled.

Some time ago on the advice of the dealer, we traded in our car for one of another model. Chancing by the said dealer's place of business a few days later we heard him describing the merits of our old car to a prospect in terms that made us think we had made a mistake in making anything less than an even trade.

The meek may inherit the earth, but just how most of it is in the possession of those who do not even know the meaning of the word.

A clock has been invented that does not need winding. Ultimately, perhaps, there will be a cat that puts itself out at night.

We have been thinking what a whiz of a Diamond Dick story some of these western movies would make.

It is difficult to say who does the most mischief, enemies with the worst intentions or friends with the best.

The 'buy at home' doctrine always sounds better from the lips of the fellow who is practicing it.

Some homes are decorated with bird cages. Other homes are bird cages decorated.

Canary birds are generally found in homes where the stork has been neglected, observes an Iowa editor.

Have you ever heard this one? A freight agent received a shipment of goods amongst which was a donkey. The donkey was described on the freight bill as one burro. After checking his goods carefully, the agent made the following report: "Short, one bureau. Over, one jackass."

BETTER BABIES WILL BE CONFERENCE AIM

Texas Cotton Palace Going in for Health on Large Scale This Season.

The better baby conference which is to be held at the Texas Cotton Palace Exposition in Waco during five days of the November 9 to 18 show is misunderstood by many Central Texas mothers, says Mrs. E. H. Flewelling, who is in charge of the conference.

"We do not want to attract only the 100 per cent babies as entrants in the Better Baby Conference," she said. "One valuable mission that the clinic has is to show mothers when their babies are under weight or have some physical defect which, if corrected in infancy, may mean years of good health later on. A mother should not feel embarrassed if her baby does not score 100 per cent. Rather she should welcome the opportunity of discovering the remedy for a physical handicap that could prove serious as a contrast to the days when these handicaps were not ascertainable."

Dr. Roscoe Etter, Waco child specialist, will be head physician at the conference with 20 doctors assisting him. Every day there will be five assisting him—two physicians, a dentist and an eye, ear, nose and throat specialist—on hand to thoroughly examine each entrant. This year, Mrs. Lee Chase, county health nurse, is assisting Mrs. Flewelling, as is Mrs. Roy Garman, a registered nurse. Six hundred invitation blanks are being sent to mothers of Central Texas.

WHY DON'T YOU ENTER BUSINESS

There is a wonderful opportunity in business for the unemployed teacher or the college student who by force of circumstances had to drop out of college. Because of your unusual literary qualifications business concerns prefer you. You make better trained office employees. No matter what your circumstances are, you should have a business training; no matter what your circumstances are you CAN have a business training.

We have a novel yet simple plan that is helping hundreds of young people through our school—a plan that enables them to pay the greater portion of their expenses after they are placed on a business man's payroll.

No need to wait till after Christmas to begin because any one who desires may visit home at least ten days during the Christmas holidays. So, if you enter now, you will be just two months ahead of the fellow who waits until after Christmas to start.

You will be surprised at what we can do for you for just a few dollars and a few months of your time.

To learn of our plan, clip the coupon and mail it to our catalogue, 'Achieving Success in Business.' No obligations on your part if you don't enter school.

The Unreasonable Hen

YOU can't reason with a hen. She's unreasonable. You can't say, "Now Julia (or whatever the hen's name is), you stay up and have a little supper before you go to roost. And don't sleep too late in the morning. You must catch up on your egg-laying." Nobody can say that to a hen. But you can make hens do that, just the same. Get a Delco-Light plant and give 'em electric lights to eat by. Hens don't like to eat in the dark. And if they don't eat and scratch around a lot, they simply don't lay eggs!

We've got some interesting facts about electric lights and eggs. If you'll call us up or drop in and see us, we'll tell you how a lot of chicken farmers have made their hens increase egg production at an enormous rate. And we don't believe bigger egg profits would make you feel bad. Would they?

Quality Products and Crop Diversification Spells Prosperity to Cameron Farmer

Diversification seems to be the key to successful farming in Milam County whether the farm be located on deep white sand or rich black loam. One of the most successful of the black land variety is that owned by D. K. Hall in the Ad Hall community. Combined with diversification and rotation of crops Mr. Hall uses thoroughbreds in every line from seed to live stock, the Airedale dog included. This is primarily a cotton farm and Qualia cotton is planted on most of it. This variety of cotton will yield a 500 pound bale of lint to 1300 pounds of seed cotton, while the unnamed varieties that take from 1500 to 1600 pounds for a 500 pound bale. It also produces a longer staple lint. In order to keep his seed pure Mr. Hall saves his cotton until he has eight or ten bales, then has them ginned at night, so that he may get his own seed back instead of seed from the mongrel cotton grown by the average farmer. Mr. Hall has already received enough orders to take all of his seed that he does not need for himself next year.

Duroc Hogs

Duroc hogs are kept. Although very few of these are sold for breeding purposes, they have found that the pure bred hog will grow to almost twice the size of a scrub hog in the same length of time and on the same amount of feed. An ideal pasture is provided for the hogs, with clear, cool spring water accessible at all times and green forage at practically all times of the year. Jersey cows are kept and supply the family table at all times as well as providing a surplus to sell. The Halls' Brown Leghorns are quite well known over Milam County having won a number of first prizes at the poultry show. And from the looks of their young pullets and an especially fine young cockerel they are headed for more prizes this year. Home Grown Feed There is always enough feed for home use grown on this farm and this year has been a surplus to sell. Reese Drouth Resister corn is grown. Sudan grass is one of the favorite feeds used for the cows. There are usually several patches of this kept growing and the cows are turned in to harvest it for themselves. Millet is grown not only for hay but for chicken feed as well. This is baled, then a bale is placed on the floor of the henhouse. The hens get the necessary exercise in scratching out the grains from the hay. Hegira and alfalfa are successfully grown and are winning a place on the regular program. Rotation of crops with cotton is practiced as much as possible in order to keep up the fertility of the soil.

CATS AND CANARIES MAY SHOW AT PALACE

Exhibits for Cotton Palace at Waco Are Being Planned With Livestock Featured.

Possibilities of a canary bird show being held at the Texas Cotton Palace exposition in Waco this year from Nov. 9 to 18 are being discussed by officials of the fair. Final decision will be made upon a basis of whether the birds can be properly cared for, and whether owners are proud enough of the fine points of their little singers to put them on exhibition.

A cat show is also being discussed, and several Waco owners of felines have urged the authorities to hold it. In the livestock shows, particular attention is to be paid dairying because of the importance it is assuming in central Texas. Jersey cows and other breeds will be shown, and boys' calf clubs will bring their animals in during the fair. Although livestock from all over Texas, and some of it from outside the state will be brought in for exhibition, local people—those of McLennan and neighboring counties—are being encouraged more than formerly to enter good stock.

GREAT GRID CLASSICS SCHEDULED FOR WACO

Cotton Palace Dates Push Into Fall and Attract Battles of the Giants.

Football lovers of Texas will have opportunity to see two of the Southwest's greatest gridiron conflicts this season at the Texas Cotton Palace exposition. Dates of the big show this year are November 9 to 18th, inclusive. The opening date is later than usual and the chief reason for pushing the opening in to the fall was to schedule these two games as exposition attractions.

The first game is to be between Texas University and Baylor University teams on the Cotton Palace field Nov. 10, on Saturday following the fair's formal opening Friday night. In connection with this game, Baylor is to have home-coming day as well, which will attract a large number of ex-students and graduates to the campus and to the Cotton Palace. The Waco Baylor club has charge of this home-coming.

Southern Methodist University of Dallas plays Baylor on Saturday, Nov. 17.

George H. Belew, business manager of Baylor University, has the job of taking care of two bushel basketsful of tickets for these gridiron classics, sorting them according to demands that are already coming in, and distributing them in proper apportionment of the rule "first come, first served."

WOMEN'S CARE FIRST IN PALACE THOUGHT

Innovations in Community Club Work Announced for Exposition.

Farm women will have headquarters at which they can feel entirely at home in the Texas Cotton Palace Exposition this year more than they ever have had before.

Dates of the big show are November 9 to 18, inclusive, and when the gates swing open there will be one entire building devoted to home demonstration clubs and community exhibits. It will be known as the home demonstration building and is the former floral building on the east side of the grounds as one enters. Canned goods, sewing work, interior decoration and garden projects of McLennan county women and girls will be on display, while community exhibits from Tarrant, Hill, Comanche, Bosque, Falls, Navarro and other counties of the state will draw hundreds of interested groups from several different localities in those counties.

A lounging room for women with chairs where they can rest after examining the attractions of the entire exposition will be a welcome innovation.

Every purchaser of a new Ford is entitled to Free Inspection Service for the first 1500 miles

THE modern automobile is a finely built piece of machinery and it will stand a lot of abuse. Considering the work it does, it gives surprisingly little trouble. But there isn't a car made that will not run better and longer if given proper care.

The first few hundred miles are especially important because that is when the mechanism of your car is being broken in.

Proper attention during this period will lengthen its life and prevent unnecessary trouble later on.

We are particularly interested in this matter because we believe it is our duty not only to make a good automobile, but to help the owner get the greatest possible use over the longest period of time at a minimum of trouble and expense.

With this in view, the entire Ford dealer organization has been specially trained and equipped to service the new Model A car.

Furthermore, we have instructed every Ford dealer to give the following Free

Inspection Service at 500, 1000 and 1500 miles:

Check battery
Check generator charging rate
Check distributor adjustment
Check carburetor adjustment
Check lights
Check brakes
Check shock absorber adjustment
Check tire inflation
Check steering gear
Change engine oil
Lubricate chassis

No charge is made for labor or materials incidental to this service, except, of course, where repairs are necessary through accident, misuse or neglect. The only charge is for new oil.

See your Ford dealer, therefore, and get this Free Inspection of your new car at 500, 1000 and 1500 miles. Find out, too, how little it will cost to have your car given a thorough going-over at regular periods thereafter.

A checking-up by experienced mechanics, together with oiling and greasing every 500 miles, will add months and years to the life of your car and mean more economical and pleasurable motoring every mile you drive.
